Taught by Derby Dinner Playhouse theatre professionals and focusing on creative dramatics and scenes, songs, and dance from Broadway musicals, the camp culminates in a final sharing on the Playhouse stage. (In past seasons, many camp students have gone on to be cast in young actor roles in Derby Dinner Playhouse's professional productions.)

DDP Performing Arts Academy Summer Musical Theatre Camp FAQs

What are the dates and time?

Week 1 is July 9-14; Week 2 is July 16-21; Week 3 is July 23-28; Week 4 is July 30-August 4. Students may only take one week. The camp runs Monday through Saturday, with no camp on Wednesdays (due to matinee in the theatre.) Camp time is 9:00AM-3:00PM daily. Please be prompt for drop-offs and pickups - we have full days planned. Please do not arrive earlier than 8:30AM as no staff will be in the building yet. At the end of the day, students will not be allowed to wait outside for pickup.

Where do I go?

Camp days will begin and finish in the theatre arena at Derby Dinner Playhouse. Parking is free.

Where will classes take place?

The 4 classes take place on stage, in lobby, lounge, and meeting room next door at the Holiday Inn. While students are being escorted through the parking lot to and from the Holiday Inn, they will have 2 teacher escorts.

What should I wear?

Please wear comfortable clothes in which you can comfortably move. Please - no short skirts or open-toed shoes/sandals. If you wish to bring dance shoes, you may.

Who are the teachers?

Camp Director/Director of Children's Theatre Matt Wallace will teach acting; DDP Footnote and actress Sandra Rivera will teach creative dramatics; DDP actress/choreographer Megan Bliss will teach dance; Musician Karen Marion will teach week 1 of music; DDP actress/choreographer Heather Folsom will teach weeks 2-4 of Music; DDP actress Carly Stotts will be "Principal."

Do I need to have prior theatre experience?

No. It is our mission to offer theatre camp to everyone, regardless of experience or skill level. Our teachers do their very best to tailor the training to the individual.

How are the groups divided?

Each week there will be around 60 students, broken into four class groups of approximately 15, based on age.

Is there a final show?

Yes. At 2:00PM on the final Saturday of camp, family and friends are invited to the "Final Sharing" in the theatre. We use the word "sharing" instead of "performance" since the camp is the culmination of their work over the week and the sharing of the skills they have learned.

Do I need a costume?

No. Since this is a process-oriented camp, we are focusing on the skills, technique, and the performing as opposed to the technical aspects and spectacle. Students will be provided with camp T-shirts and various simple props or costume pieces.

Will my child be cast in a Derby Dinner Playhouse show?

Over the past few seasons, over 30 camp students have gone on to be cast in DDP professional shows. Because we have over 700 current and former students, it would be impossible to schedule an open call audition for each show. However, the camp is a great opportunity for our directors and staff to train and get to know your child for consideration for future callbacks, should they meet the specific needs the director of the show may request.

Can parents watch class?

Our classes are always open, but we do find that students do better and are often more free creatively when not being observed by parents. The best non-obtrusive place to observe is in top row of the theatre arena as the other classrooms vary in size and observation in smaller rooms tends to disrupt class.

What about food?

Students bring their own lunch (no refrigerator available.) If they wish to bring a snack, there are a couple snack breaks as well. Water and cups are provided.

Are there any extra costs?

No. It's important to us to keep our camp price reasonable and to not add extra costs. Each student will receive a free camp shirt, and we will email you camp class photos afterwards at no cost. Photos will also be posted on our Facebook Fan Page.

How do I contact you?

If there is an emergency and you need to reach a teacher or student during class time, call the box office at 812-288-8281. If you need to reach us outside of class time, you can call the 812-288-2632, ex. 132 or email Matt at Wallace@derbydinner.com.

Cancellation Policy

You may cancel one month in advance with no penalty and receive a full refund. If you cancel less than one month in advance, you will receive a refund ONLY if there is a waiting list and there is someone to take that open space.
